SOUL BEAUTY MOMENT | WEEK 2

Rest in His Timing

WHAT GOD IS PREPARING FOR YOU CANNOT BE RUSHED.

SCRIPTURE

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

ISAIAH 40:31 KJV

WEEKLY WORD

In a world that moves fast, waiting can feel like falling behind. We see others stepping into new seasons, achieving goals, and experiencing breakthroughs, and we start to question, "Lord, where is mine?"

But God's timing is never late. It is deliberate, protective, and purposeful. What He is preparing for you requires the right people, the right place, and the right you. Rushing can lead to the wrong alignment, but waiting on God leads to lasting fruit.

Waiting doesn't mean doing nothing. It means staying close, staying obedient, and trusting that He is working—even when you can't see it. In the waiting, He renews your strength, sharpens your character, and prepares you to carry what He is about to release.

REFLECTION & APPLICATION

- 1 Where is God asking me to be patient right now?
- 2 What have I been trying to rush instead of surrender?
- 3 How can I use this season to grow, prepare, and stay aligned with Him?
- 4 What is one step of obedience I can take today while I wait?

PRAYER

Lord, teach me to trust Your timing. Help me to be still, even when I don't understand. Renew my strength in the waiting. Keep me aligned, obedient, and prepared for all that You are doing behind the scenes. I choose to trust You, not my timeline. In Jesus' name, Amen.

BRANDED QUOTE

Delays are not denials—they are divine preparation.

REMEMBER

- God's timing is perfect.
- Waiting is not wasted time.
- He is working, even in silence.
- You are being prepared, not punished.
- What's for you will not miss you.

DECLARE THIS WEEK

"I will trust God's timing. I will not rush what He is preparing. I am growing, being refined, and positioned for what He has for me."
